

How Can Swedish Development Aid Contribute to a Grand Convergence in Global Health by 2035?

Seminar 7 November 2014, 13.00-16.00

Venue: Rosenbads Conference Centre; Drottninggatan 5, Stockholm

PROGRAM:

- 13.00 Introduction, Julia Schalk, moderator
- 13.05 Opening remarks, Ulrika Mod er, State secretary for international development.
- 13.15 *“Swedish Policy Options in Support of the Global Health 2035 Goals”, Gavin Yamey and Jesper Sundewall
- 13.55 *Comments, Sigrun M gedal
- 14.10 Coffee, tea
- 14.40 *World Bank Financing of National Health Systems Evaluated - LIC and MIC differences, Pia Schneider
- 15.10 *Panel discussion moderated by Julia Schalk
*Panel: Anders Molin, Pia Schneider, Gavin Yamey, Sigrun M gedal
- 15.55 *Winding Up, Julia Schalk

Speakers and discussants:

Ulrika Modéer, Swedish state secretary for international development cooperation

Sigrun Møgedal, MD, Special Advisor at the Norwegian Knowledge Centre for the Health Services, Former Norwegian Hiv/AIDS-ambassador, ex-board member of GFATM, GAVI, UNITAID; co-author of The Political Origins of health inequity (The Lancet- UiO Commission Report, 2014), among others.

Anders Molin, MD, Senior Policy Advisor for Health, Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency, (Sida).

Julia Schalk, Member of the EBA, Policy Advisor, the Swedish Association for Sexuality Education (RFSU).

Pia Schneider, Lead Evaluator, Social Sector, IEG, World Bank, Former Senior Economist, World Bank among others.

Jesper Sundewall, PhD, Programme manager at the EBA, formerly at the Swedish National Audit and the Finance Committee of the Swedish Parliament.

Gavin Yamey, MD, MPH, MA, MRCP, Associate Professor of Epidemiology & Biostatistics, University of California, San Francisco School of Medicine; Editor of BMJ, PloS Medicine, WJM among others.